

A photograph of the Sonoma Coffee Table in a living room setting. The table is a rustic-style wooden coffee table with a wire-brush finish. It features a rectangular top and a lower shelf, both supported by four turned legs. On the table, there is a white coffee cup on a saucer, an open book, and a small potted plant. The lower shelf holds two books. The table is placed on a patterned rug in front of a dark sofa with a patterned pillow. A light-colored throw blanket is draped over the left side of the sofa.
