

A photograph of two olive green outdoor patio chairs with a unique snake-like ruffled texture. They are positioned on a light-colored patio floor against a white brick wall. Between the chairs is a small round wooden table with three legs, holding a white bowl of red fruit and two glasses of orange juice. A large green plant is visible behind the chairs on the left, and another plant is behind the chair on the right. A black metal side table is partially visible on the far right.
